Historia del Narcotráfico en Mexico Guillermo Valdes

Drug trafficking in Mexico has reached never-before imagined heights thanks to the worrying agreements between Cartel leaders and the authorities, the collusion of members of government, and the established negotiations with military and security forces. The elevated standing of drug dealers within Mexican society is nothing short of impactful and worthy of careful analysis. In these pages Guillermo Valdes elaborates an inventory of its main characters and the mechanisms they employed to reach the summit; among them Caro Quintero, Ernesto Fonseca Don Neto and Felix Gallardo, El Mayo Zambada, the Beltran Leyva, Amado Carrillo El señor de los Cielos, Joaquin El Chapo Guzman, the Arellano Felix, and Hector El Guero Palma. Historia del narcotráfico en Mexico is, without a doubt, the most important investigation on the war on drugs."
