Présentation de l'éditeur

From the man generally acknowledged to be the "last of the sleeping prophets," and the only legitimate successor to Edgar Cayce, and Paul Solomon, comes the most detailed and specific "predictive" book about the post-2012 era ever published. Is this book for you? Look about you -- if the world you see seems sane and normal and comfortable, then probably not. But if the world you see seems chaotic, unpredictable, and just a little bit dangerous, then - for the benefit of yourself and your family - you need to understand how the era we are now in now "fits" within the long-term evolution of life on earth. You need to understand the extreme high probability of seeing major 'earth changes' in your own lifetime, and how to prepare for them. Using information taken from the Deep Trance -- a meditative phenomenon in which the ego personality is suppressed and contact is made with the Higher Mind or God-Mind -- comes astonishing, specific, and detailed information about how each major geographic area on the planet is likely to be affected in the years ahead. One reviewer called this book "the ultimate insurance policy" -- know what is coming, and know what to do about it!
